

30 DAYS OF KINDNESS

Write a note of appreciation and send it to the person in the BINGO square of your choice. You could send it via text, email, or snail mail! Go for a BINGO line or a "blackout" of the whole board! Share your kindness with us using: #GACkindness!

B I N G O
Your current teacher	A person who may not receive encouragement from anyone else - or you think is under appreciated.	Someone who encourages you.	The unexpected person who helped you in a time of need	An emergency services professional – police, fire, military, etc.
Your neighbor	A friend who makes you laugh	The person who cuts your hair.	Sibling	A former teacher who encouraged you to be a better student or person
Someone who has made an impact on your life	A coach	Send a snail mail letter to a random elder via lovefortheelderly.org/letters	A leader you've admired	Someone who inspires you with something they do well
A friend who was there when you needed one most	Someone whose smile encourages you	A random acquaintance that comes to mind	Someone who has invested in you and may not even know it	Your grandparent(s)
Your parent(s)	The person who has been the most patient with you or others	An often unnoticed, but vital person (such as the custodian, street worker, truck driver, or garbage collector)	A medical professional.	Someone whose birthday is coming up

